batenim netlabel ends 2014 releasing four tracks by two artists of great importance and skill. Csillagköd (Olivér Dombi from Transylvania), strengthens his presence in batenim and he's considered an "always welcome artist" with two albums as Csillagköd and one with the pseudonym of Shambala Networks.

A pleasant and welcome surprise are the other two songs by an artist famous and immensely valuable in the landscape of international ambient / atmospheric / aural alchemy music, Cousin Silas, self-proclaimed "sound alchemist" and referred himself as "audio photographs" or "moodscapes"; english musician and music producer most notable for his drone music with his magnificent richly-textured ambient electronic tracks, since 1996 his discography has created a highly respected and valuable. Between 1990 and 2000 Cousin Silas (David Hughes) writes several short stories, poetry, prose, and articles were published in That small press magazines. On 28 January 2004 Cousin Silas made an appearance on BBC Radio1 played by John Peel. In January / February 2015 he will presents a new album for batenim netlabel.
